KNOBS & BALLS ON THE SEA FRONT

Ready? Go!

1 What can you find attached to the chain below this very decorative & prominent knob?

Answer here

2

These knobs are along the railings on the sea front. From one end to the other (both sides of the beach slope). How many knobs are there?

3

On either side of the big gates there are spikes with balls on top. How many spikes?

4

This is the ball and scroll on a gate post. What is the family name on the plaque on the gate?

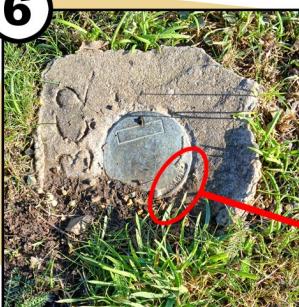

Here is a clue

5

Will you find this anchor on a wall, on a post, or on the ground?

6

Below the railings, this small plate is very well hidden. (Don't fall over the cliff looking for it.)

My question is... What is the word that you see circled here in red? It may be upside down.

8

All the metal benches in the sea-front gardens have a date on each end. What is the total number of single digits on all the benches when they are all added together?

Example: 2006 becomes
 $2+0+0+6 = 8$.

7

On the block-paved paths that lead up to the picnic tables there are letters and numbers hidden in the stones. One says NNDC (North Norfolk District Council) while the other path contains a date.

What is the date on that path?

9

What is the name of the shop in Melbourne House?

10

Which sovereign was on the throne when this postbox was fitted into the wall?

11

Who created the metal snail?

12

What two letters are missing from Old Ark?

13

Who died?

14

What two letters are below the red crown?

15

At the top of a wall in Victoria Road is a very faint drawing of a pointing finger. (See illustration) What is the second word in the old painted sign on the wall below?

THIS IS VERY HARD TO FIND

16

What is the name of the house that is guarded by these three fearsome creatures?

What are the public requested to make proper use of?

17

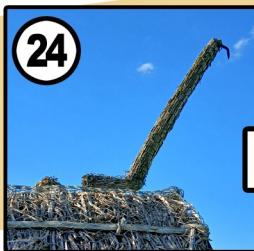

Is this getting too easy?

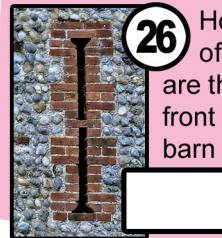

18 Between Cowper House and Cowper Barn, how many X's are on the cobbled wall?

21 An old finger post has lost its pointy fingers. But it still retains the name of the makers, in the lower section of the pole. What is that makers name?

24 Four! You are requested to keep to... which direction?

26 How many of these slits are there in the front of the old barn wall?

29 In the church yard there is a stunning sculpture of an angel carrying a horn. (The symbol of judgment day, entry into heaven and the resurrection.) Who was the first person to be buried in this plot?

BRINGING US NEATLY BACK TO THE SEA FRONT

Let's go the other way.

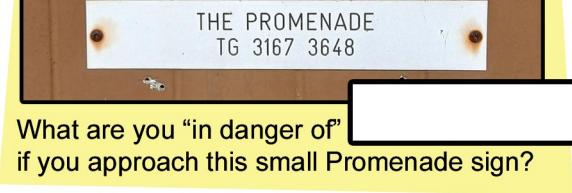

34 What have people been doing in this building since 1925?

37 Two and a half cats overlook the entrance to what chalet park?

38

What are you "in danger of" if you approach this small Promenade sign?

Name the house with the cobbled pyramids.

19

20

This finial is at the very top of what building?

23

Which one of your relations does the "Green-man" on the tree remind you of?

22

This post box is on a pole. Going into the path to the side of this post box are several other posts. What is on the top of the tallest?

21

25

To the left of the gate into "McDermott Field" sits a large marker stone that is often covered with weeds and brambles. On this is a brass plaque. He "Loved this place and Derbyshire schools camp" but what year did he die?

28

Name the boat that is on the left of the Millennium Garden?

26

27

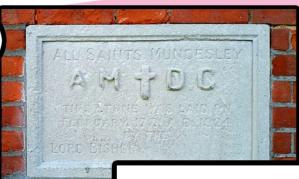

On the road below the SV sign is a metal cover plate. What is the word on this plate that begins with a "W" and ends with an "R"?

30

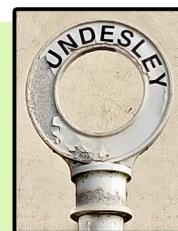

This is a very interesting and unusual cast iron grave marker. How many are there?

31

The stone on the church/community rooms was layed by the Lord Bishop of which Norfolk market town?

33

Pointing to Knapton, Trimingham and where else?

32

In this picture, what two words have been removed from the plaque on the library?

35

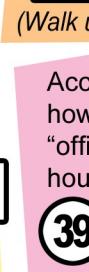

On the side of the Ship Inn are two lovely old lamps. What name is embossed on the glass?

36

A concrete post marks a footpath. What are the three letters on it?

37

(Walk up the footpath to find the old millpond.)

According to the sign, how many people can "officially" sleep in the house with the tower?

39

40 This interesting and decorative item is in someone's front garden. (Please do not trespass.) What type of post is it?

41

The wall to the right of the anchor belongs to a cottage. Who owns the wall on the left?

TAKE CARE
CROSSING

42

Set in the hotel wall, is it VR, GR, ER or CR?

43 What is the name of the famous battle named on the wall below this impressive lamp?

44

46 How many of these matching planters are along the road in front of the holiday village?

49 What are they proud to be founding members of?

50

Who was a carpenter, a fisherman and loved the sea?

45 How many N's are missing from this sign?

48

47 How many of these benches are you NOT able to sit on because you are walking on the wrong side of the fence?

HERE COMES A
"HOW MANY" SECTION

THE END | The MUNDESLEY Observation TRAIL

Set by - Nigel Holmes

This observation trail has been created free of charge, for your enjoyment. If you have had fun, perhaps you could think about how you could help the local area by donating a small amount to a great cause. Helping the local community teach sea and beach safety.

Our purpose is saving lives and preventing drowning. Starting at age 7 members develop the skills, confidence, fitness and water safety awareness to become Lifesavers at 16. Our Surf lifeguards have the highest beach safety standards.

Aiming to create a water-safe community, by teaching swimming, participating in sport and training lifeguards.

We teach members how to respect and understand the beach environment.

We rely 100% on public donations
